Norwich, Saturday, Sept. 28, 1918.

THE WEATHER.

A disturbance of marked character is moving rapidly eastward across the extreme north with its center tonight apparently near and east of James Bay and it is without precipitation south of Ontario.

There were rains Thursday night in New England, the middle Atlantic states and the east lower lake region.
 Elsewhere fair weather prevailed.
 It will be warmer Saturday from the Ohio valley eastward and northeastward.

Storm warnings are displayed on the lower lakes from Buffalo to Oswego.
 The winds along the north Atlantic will be southwest to west, becoming fresh, fair weather.

Middle Atlantic: moderate, mostly west, fair weather.

Forecast.
 Southern New England: Fair Saturday, warmer on the mainland; Sunday fair.

GREENEVILLE

The boat belonging to Mr. Carter which is stationed at Dawley's wharf, has been sunk under the Laurel Hill bridge. It cast its anchor and drifted to the bridge. They are going to work on it Saturday to try and bring it to shore.

Albert Nelson who had been confined to his home with a slight attack of the grip, is able to be out and around Friday.

Many railroad crossing signals are being replaced in the village. Two have been erected at the entrance to the village.

Many people received mail from their boys across the sea Friday morning and all seemed to be in the best of health and enjoying the life very much.

A number of local young men are forming a motor boat trip to Groton Long Point Saturday evening. They expect to camp out and return Monday afternoon.

Many people who had been laid up with the grip were seen on the streets Friday.

Many local young men went to have their questionnaires fixed Friday afternoon.

Mr. Bullard is confined to his home with a slight attack of the grip.

Local boys who have formed a football team are going to practice for the first time Saturday afternoon at the Granberry.

Word has been received from James Morrison who left with the last boys that left Norwich. He is enjoying the soldier's life very much and is enjoying the best of health.

James Stearns, who was confined to his home with the grip, has returned to work.

Many of the local young boys are planning for the carrying out of the work-end at the Dreybridge. They will carry all their utensils in a wagon to comply with the "gasless" Sunday law.

The home gardeners are busy harvesting their late crops. All seemed pleased with the luck they had with their gardens this year.

Many college boys left today for school. Many colleges open today.

John Kosciuszko has been confined to his home on Ninth street with a slight attack of the grip.

Michael Murphy of Providence is spending a few days in the village.

Edward Reavey of the Newport Training Station is spending a few days in the village.

The ambulance took out a man from a house on North Main street about 3:30 Friday afternoon. He was sick with pneumonia.

The 3 o'clock car from the square was stalled at South street for about twenty minutes owing to the burning out of a controller.

Miss Josephine Dempsey is confined to her home on Boswell avenue with an attack of the grip.

Many local people attended the band concert Friday evening.

PENDLETON IS HIGH

SCORER FOR EVENING

In the second night of their season's play, C. V. Pendleton, Jr., was the high scorer on Friday evening at the meeting of the West Side Pinocle club, making 7.765, while A. Jordan pushed him close with 7.745.

The following shows the scores on the play Friday night and the total figures for each man: Parker, 6.875 and 14.650; A. Jordan, 7.745 and 14.555; Peckham, 7.560 and 14.525; Larsen, 7.820 and 14.360; Hankell, 6.645 and 14.010; Hahn, 6.925 and 13.795; Bailey, 6.605 and 13.115; Lewis, 6.935 and 12-985; Pettis, 5.915 and 12.825; Pendleton, 7.765 and 15.795; J. Jordan, 6.350 and 12.575.

EVENTS OF FIFTY YEARS AGO

In Norwich fifty years ago the week passed quietly without anything sensational happening. The city laid a tax of 4 mills on the dollar to raise funds for current expenses. A barn at Norwich Town was destroyed by fire.

Extracts from The Bulletin's files of '68 follow:

Sept. 21, 1868—A fire broke out in a barn belonging to Lyman Lee at Norwich Town on Friday evening and before assistance could arrive the barn and its contents had been destroyed.
 The damage was about seven hundred dollars.

The police made 75 arrests during the past month. Most of the arrests were for intoxication.

Sept. 22, 1868—The Greenville Boys in Blue held a meeting Monday night and elected the following officers: Cap. John H. Norris; first lieutenant, James Higgins; second lieutenant, George Town, and third lieutenant, George Robinson.

A large griststone in the Chelsea File works broke yesterday and a piece weighing about 300 pounds was thrown through the side of the building narrowly missing a workman.

Sept. 23, 1868—The voters of the East Great Plain School district on Monday evening met and chose the following officers for the ensuing year: District committee, George W.
 Gould, clerk, Abel Rathbone; treaturer, Charles H. Gardner; collector, James Ritchie.

The Windham County Fair opened on Tuesday and there was a large crowd from all over the state present.
 The fair is held at Brooklyn, Conn., and will last for three days.

Sept. 24, 1868—The total expenditure of the town of Norwich for the past year was $147,176.63. Deducting from this amount the state tax, interest, common schools and other various items ($98,473.57), the current expenses were $48,703.12. The town debt is $198,136.35.

The Boys in Blue from the Central District drilled at the State Armory on Wednesday evening and the other companies in the city will also hold drills.

Sept. 25, 1868—The annual conference of the New London County Temperance Union was held at Housatonic on Wednesday with many attending from all parts of the county.

Officers of the Eighteenth Regiment, C. V., met here to make final arrangements for their reunion at Al-exanders park this week.

Sept. 26, 1868—A short city meeting a tax of 4 mills on the dollar was laid to meet the expenses of the current fiscal year.

The Wauregan Hook and Ladder Company will return home today from Philadelphia where they have been guests of the Quaker City department.

WHAT'S NEW IN COATS—SEPARATE SKIRTS CUT SCANT Chilly weather sends the thoughts of womanhood in the direction of heavier coats and skirts, for buying of seasonable garments cannot be delayed much longer.

This year the manufacturers have chosen velvet as the fabric most popular for dress coats. Another matterial high in favor is silvertone, while the ever reliable broadcloth and the smart pumpon stand next in order of vogue.

In general, the best models are cut with straight back, and there is much fur trimming. The panel back is also liked, many fancy belts are shown, and the side pocket in panther suggestion is a feature of some of the best examples noted yesterday. Cuffs are of medium width and contribute materially to the beauty of a garment because of their adornment of large buttons.

Deep fur collars are strong in popularity and the fur is frequently replaced on the cuffs and some of the draped belts are of the half-belt order, and on these buttons play an important part in adornment. The plated back is a mark of other modish coats on display.

As to colors, taupe, brown, burgundy, greys and navy are in the lead, while the soft shade known as reindeer is very strong.

There continues to be a steady call for the separate skirt, in spite of the wonderful vogue of the one-piece dress.

These skirts in the main are of plaids and checks, and come in the most fascinating soft, woolen goods, fine worsteds, which are a delight to any buyer. Many of the skirts are severely plain, and all are of more or less scanty width, in accord with the government request to use cloth as sparingly as is consistent. Other smart skirt designs show the favored plaids, accordion, side, or box, as suits the individual taste. Pockets and buttons retain their hold on millinery's fancy and the draped belt has not yet been superseded by anything more becoming or better liked.

This is a good day to make a selection of the winter coat or skirt, after taking note of what The Bulletin's advertisers have to say as regards stocks on view for the benefit of intending purchasers.

Vessel Aground.
 An Atlantic Port, Sept. 27.—A vessel of undisclosed rig or tonnage has been aground off this port since early today. The vessel apparently is without cargo. Naval craft have gone to her assistance.

 city, Sept. 25, 1918, Dr. Clinton E.
 Stark.
 Funeral service at his late home, 103 Cliff street, Monday afternoon, Sept.
 30, at 2:30 o'clock.

RIVERS—In Camp Devens, Mass., Sept.
 26, 1918, Ambrose J. Rivers of Fitch-ville.
 Notice of funeral hereafter.

M'PARREN—In the Newport City hospital, Sept. 26, 1918, Charles Thomas M'Parren of Westerly, R. I., aged 30 years.
 Funeral services will be held at the Episcopal church, Westerly, on Saturday, Sept. 28.

THEATERS AND SCHOOLS
IN CLOSING ORDER

Moving picture houses and theaters of the city are to be closed indefinitely after the Saturday performances by order of Health Officer E. J.
 Brophy. The schools will also remain closed for the next week because of the Spanish influenza epidemic.

The health authorities feel that the situation is improving but decided to close the theatres largely because so many sailors coming from New London where the epidemic is severe attend the performances.

CAMP DEVENS CALLS FOR TRAINED NURSES

Mayor J. J. Desmond received on Friday afternoon a telegram from Mayor George H. Quigley of New Britain asking that a call be issued for ten trained nurses to volunteer to go to Camp Devens to help in the Spanish influenza epidemic cases there.

In view of the situation here where every nurse is needed there seems small probability that there can be any response here.

INCIDENTS IN SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. Huntington Lee and son have returned to New Haven, after passing the season at their cottage on Haughton's Cove.

Mrs. Gardiner Greene will leave today in a few days to join Judge Greene, who is holding court in Litchfield.

Miss Henrietta Browning has entered Wellesley college.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Crandall returned recently from a trip to New York and Washington.

Miss Marjorie Holmes has been the guest of Mrs. Daniel S. Bayliand in Hudson, Mass.

TWO AVIATORS KILLED
NEAR TALIAFERRO FIELD

Fort Worth, Texas, Sept. 27.—Second Lieutenants George W. Killorin, Jr., of Wakefield, Mass., aged 22, and Herbert Huck of Wadesville, Ind., aged 24, were killed this morning when their plane fell near Taliaferro field. Both men were attached to the school of aerial gunnery. Lieutenant Killorin was the son of a prominent contractor of Wakefield.

If a young man attempts to kiss a girl during courtship she hates him.
 After marriage she hates him if he neglects it.
